

vCom Solutions Mobile Phone Recycling

Retired mobile phones pose three critical challenges for your enterprise: scrubbing proprietary data, reducing environmental impact, and tracking mobile assets. vCom solves these challenges, making it easy to deal with retired mobile phones safely and responsibly.

vCom Mobile Phone Recycling is easy – you ship your used mobile phones to us free of charge. Next, we scrub the device of its data, using the most reliable process available. Due to our strict “no-landfill” policy, you can be confident that your retired devices are handled in an environmentally sound manner. The entire process is tracked and audited letting you trace the safe and successful retirement of your devices.

vCom also enables you to create a corporate recycling program that we execute for you from soup to nuts.

vCom provides:

- Scrubbing of proprietary data
- Reduction in environmental impact
- Free shipping
- A tracked and audited process
- Corporate recycling programs
